

Holston's RESPONSE

to Hurricane Harvey

Holston Conference of The United Methodist Church • August 2017

United Methodist churches in Holston Conference will collect cleaning supplies and hygiene items to help survivors of Hurricane Harvey in Texas and Louisiana.

The United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR) has requested Cleaning Kits and Hygiene Kits as southeastern Texas braces for days of catastrophic flooding from unrelenting rain, the remnants of Harvey.

The hurricane and tropical storm are blamed for displacing thousands and causing multiple fatalities. Authorities expect the toll to rise as rescue efforts continue and rain and floodwaters threaten. Jim Fetzer, Holston disaster response coordinator, said that churches should follow UMCOR's instructions for assembling the needed supplies and deliver the kits to their district offices by September 12.

Instructions for Cleaning Buckets and Health Kits are provided on UMCOR's website \(UMCOR.org\). Monetary donations can be sent to the Conference Office marked for UMCOR Disaster Response in U.S., Advance #901670.
