

GREENEVILLE, Tenn. – Asbury UMC seeks part-time Director of Contemporary Worship. The primary responsibility of the Director of Contemporary Worship will be to plan, coordinate, and lead weekly contemporary worship service (Sundays at 10:40AM) for the members of the church. As the leader of the Contemporary Worship, the Director of Contemporary Worship prays, sings, and interacts with the Praise Band, Pastors, and the congregation to ensure the service flows as smoothly as possible from beginning to end. It is a balanced combination of spiritual, musical, and presentation objectives. Successful candidate will have previous experience leading or participating in a band or choral group; have the ability to read music, sing, and play a musical instrument; and a desire to schedule, recruit, and integrate the Praise Band into the worship space. Send resume with personal and professional references to Rev. Shannon Marie L. Berry, Pastor, at search@asburyumconline.com.
