

Way to go! Way to give!

waytogive.holston.org

Holston Conference

November 2013

And now may the Lord show loving kindness and truth to you; and I also will show this goodness to you, because you have done this thing.

~ 2 SAMUEL 2:6

At Thanksgiving, we raise our praise and gratitude to a God who blesses us beyond our own comprehension.

At Thanksgiving, we also take this opportunity to express gratitude to the people in our Holston Conference churches who give so faithfully all year long.

Did you know that you and your church are part of a community of almost 900 other United Methodist churches in east Tennessee, southwest Virginia, and north Georgia? The tithes and offerings you give through your church not only change lives in your own neighborhood, but throughout Holston Conference and around the world.

So today, and throughout the 2014 year to come, we want to say “thank you” for all you do as generous church members, for the gifts you give to share God’s love at home and beyond. You help Holston Conference and other United Methodist churches in the U.S. and overseas make good on Jesus’ commandment to “go and make disciples.”

Beginning January 1, the Holston Conference Council on Finance and Administration will share some of the stories revealing just how important and life-changing your gifts have been for generations past and generations to come. Your pastor will find ways to share these uplifting stories with you, or you may visit WaytoGive.Holston.org for a preview.

Until then, we want to say Happy Thanksgiving, Holston Conference ... and thank you. You’ll never know how many lives you’ve changed. Way to go. Way to give!

Way to go! Way to give!

waytogive.holston.org

Holston Conference

November 2013

And now may the Lord show loving kindness and truth to you; and I also will show this goodness to you, because you have done this thing.

~ 2 SAMUEL 2:6

At Thanksgiving, we raise our praise and gratitude to a God who blesses us beyond our own comprehension.

At Thanksgiving, we also take this opportunity to express gratitude to the people in our Holston Conference churches who give so faithfully all year long.

Did you know that you and your church are part of a community of almost 900 other United Methodist churches in east Tennessee, southwest Virginia, and north Georgia? The tithes and offerings you give through your church not only change lives in your own neighborhood, but throughout Holston Conference and around the world.

So today, and throughout the 2014 year to come, we want to say “thank you” for all you do as generous church members, for the gifts you give to share God’s love at home and beyond. You help Holston Conference and other United Methodist churches in the U.S. and overseas make good on Jesus’ commandment to “go and make disciples.”

Beginning January 1, the Holston Conference Council on Finance and Administration will share some of the stories revealing just how important and life-changing your gifts have been for generations past and generations to come. Your pastor will find ways to share these uplifting stories with you, or you may visit WaytoGive.Holston.org for a preview.

Until then, we want to say Happy Thanksgiving, Holston Conference ... and thank you. You’ll never know how many lives you’ve changed. Way to go. Way to give!