Holston Conference Prayer for General Conference 2016

*Our Prayers

Imagine General Conference 2016 bathed in prayer. That's the vision of the Council of Bishops of The United Methodist Church. Between January 1, 2016 and May 10, 2016, all 131 annual conferences around the globe will offer their prayers on one particular day for the upcoming gathering of 864 delegates from around the world.

Holston's day is Tuesday, April 12, 2016. For twenty-four hours, we will join our prayers to the chain of conferences in our global family of The United Methodist Church who are seeking that God's will be accomplished and that we offer a positive witness as we participate in Christian conferencing.

In Holston, we are going to ring our church bells to mark this day of prayer. Beginning at 5:10 p.m. and lasting until 5:20 p.m., congregations are asked to ring their church bells to signal our call to prayer. This time frame represents the dates of the General Conference session in Portland, Oregon from May 10-May 20. During this ten-minute period, pause where you are to remember the General Conference, all who will attend, the work that will be accomplished, and the ministry of our Church that will continue long after the Conference is adjourned.

Bishop Mary Virginia Taylor and our Holston delegation of 6 lay persons and 6 clergy also welcome your prayerful support. Please remember each of these individuals by name in prayer on April 12.

General Conference Lay Delegates: Del Holley, Emily Ballard, Becky Hall, John Tate, Bob Lockaby, Karen Wright, Alternates: Joyce Moore, John Eldridge

General Conference Clergy Delegates: David Graves, Kim Goddard, Sandra Johnson, Carol Wilson, Wil Cantrell, Randy Frye, Alternates: Mark Flynn, Paul Seay
